UGRA River Clean Up Art Contest Winners

The top artists in UGRA's River Clean Up art contest to design the event t-shirt were recognized recently by UGRA's Outreach and Education Committee Chair, Diane McMahon. "Thank you for your enthusiasm to contribute to the success of UGRA's annual River Clean Up. I hope that participation in the contest increased your awareness of the need to keep our river clean and beautiful," said McMahon. The design contest winner, Kiersten Adams, received a certificate of achievement and a $100 check. Second place winner, Ethan Wrase, and third place winner, Zoe Crider, received certificates of achievement and $50 and $25 checks, respectively. Kiersten and Zoe will be entering 9th grade at Center Point High School and Ethan will be entering 9th grade at Tivy High School. The 15th Annual River Clean Up will be held on Saturday, July 28, 2018 at Flat Rock Park and the first 200 volunteers will receive a free t-shirt with Kiersten's artwork highlighted on the front.
